Subject: good morning

Good morning Kiranmayi,

I have good news for you and IIRM I have passed my last CII exams which I wrote on April, 2009,

Now I have completed 90 Credits which are required by them to get an ACII, kindly convey this message to Mr. Vepa because during the Convocation he told me that I have to finish the remaining 2 Exams to become an ACII and award of 1,000 pounds. And I did it. I hope he will be happy for that.

I wish you a happy day.

May God bless you all.

Regards,

Arthur A. Masha
